2. Abstract/Attribution Report

The following copyright statements and licenses apply to various open source software packages (or portions thereof) that are distributed with Ribbon's Session Border Controller (SBC) product.

Ribbon's SBC software may not use all of the open source software packages referred to in this document and may also only use portions of a given package.

To the extent that the terms of your license agreement with RIBBON for the SBC software differ from the terms of the applicable open source license, the terms that differ are offered by Ribbon alone and not by any other party. The terms of the Ribbon agreement do not replace or alter your rights or obligations under the applicable open source license as they relate to the associated open source software package.
